Protestant Family Centre
Three strong partners for one district

We are there for you!

We are the Protestant Family Centre Rützenscheid, situated in the Kindertagesstätten Isenbergstraße and Julienstraße as well as the »Haus der kleinen Leute« in Lotharstraße.

As the Family Centre (FZ) Rützenscheid we offer you different opportunities for encounter, guidance and counselling of children and families in our district.

In our work we focus on your specific needs and ideas. With the support of our cooperation partners we invite you to our manifold local offers.

Interested people of all generations are welcome, independent from their culture or religion. Please visit us! Childcare is possible after prior agreement.

Our goal is to link the whole district regardless of age or religious beliefs. Our offers are open to all interested persons in the district.

For information on our concrete offers please contact us – we'd love to advise you. Alternatively you can inform yourself on our website:

Ev. Kindertagesstätte Isenbergstraße

We are a Day-care Centre. For over 40 years we are a place for children and families. We give space for families for encounter and exchange with offers that suits the personal needs.

We take care of 66 children aged between 2 and 6 years in three groups opened from 7.30 am to 4.30 pm.

Ev. Kindergarten Julienstraße

You find us protected in the courtyard of the Reformation Church in the Ernst-Moritz-Arndt House. We create a familiar atmosphere in our cooperational work with two kindergarten groups for max.

48 children aged between 3 to 6 years. We are open from 7 am to 4 pm.

Haus der kleinen Leute

We are the »House of the little people«. Families with children from various cultural backgrounds meet here. We see ourselves as a meeting point for all cultures and generations. We take care of 45 children aged between 2 and 6 years in two groups from 7.30 am to 4.30 pm.
